MALALA DAY OBSERVATION

Date: 12 July 2022

Time: 12.30pm-1.15pm

Venue: Department of Social Work, Mar Sleeva College

The PG Department of Social work, Mar Sleeva College of Arts and Science observed Malala day on 12 July 2022 in accordance to honouring Malala Yousafzai, the youngest ever recipient of Nobel Peace Prize. The day is not only her birthday, but it's also this date in 2013 she spoke at the UN to call for worldwide access to education. Since that year, the UN has dubbed July 12th as Malala Day.

The program was felicitated by Dr.Joshy Varghese, Principal, Mar Sleeva College. Ms. Sneha Mathew gave a talk on how significant it is to observe such a day and about specialities of the day. After that, Ms. Christin Sairah explained on life story of Malala Yousafzai followed by a discussion by Ms. Maneesha on results of Malala's protest for rights of girl children. Towards end, Dr.Joshy Varghese gave his felicitation address. Students were given a chance to share their views also on this topic. The meeting ended by 1.15pm with a vote of thanks by Fr. Mathew Puthuparambil, Faculty, Department of Social Work.
